9. In accordance with rule 68 of the provisional rules of procedure, representatives of the States parties shall be invited to attend the meetings of the Committee when their reports are examined. Such representatives should be able to answer questions put to them by the Committee and make statements on reports already submitted by their State, and may also submit further information.

10. In accordance with rule 68 of the Committee's provisional rules of procedure, the Secretary-General has notified the States parties concerned of the opening date, duration and place of the seventh session of the Committee at which their respective reports will be examined and has invited them to send representatives to attend the meetings of the Committee at which their reports will be examined.

Item 5. Review of developments relevant to the work of the Committee

11. Under this item, the Committee will be provided with information on action taken pursuant to recommendations adopted by the Committee at its fifth and sixth sessions.

12. Additionally, the Rapporteur will inform the Committee about developments relevant to its work that have occurred since the preceding session. The Committee will also be briefed about developments relating to other human rights monitoring bodies.

13. The Committee will have before it the following documents:

(a) A note by the Secretariat containing relevant information about action taken by the General Assembly at its forty-eighth session, by the Commission on Human Rights at its fiftieth session, and other activities relevant to the work of the Committee;

(b) General Assembly resolutions 48/136, 48/156 and 48/157;

(c) Commission on Human Rights resolutions 1994/90, 1994/91, 1994/92, 1994/93 and 1994/94.

Item 6. System of documentation and information

14. Under this item, the Committee may wish to continue discussing issues relating to the system of information and documentation relevant to the work of the Committee, including the question of the establishment of a computerized network. The Committee may also wish to pursue the discussion started at the consultative meeting on 9 October 1993, organized in cooperation with UNICEF, and continued during the follow-up consultative meeting on an information and documentation system to support the implementation of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, held at the Centre for Human rights on 19 January 1994.

Item 7. General discussion on "The role of the family in the promotion of the rights of the child"

15. In accordance with rule 75 of its provisional rules of procedure, the Committee decided, at its fourth session, that at its next session a day of general discussion would be held on 10 October 1994, devoted to the topic of the role of the family in the promotion of the rights of the child, and agreed to invite interested bodies and agencies and individual experts to participate in that general discussion. Invitations were dispatched by the secretariat to relevant organizations and individuals on 25 April 1994.

Item 8. Cooperation with other United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and other competent bodies

16. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue its discussion on ways and areas in which existing cooperation with various relevant bodies could be further strengthened to enhance the promotion and protection of the rights of the child.

Item 9. Methods of work of the Committee

17. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue its discussion concerning the organization of its future work, the procedure to be followed in the consideration of reports by States parties and their follow-up, including, where necessary, areas identified for technical assistance, and the urgent procedure.

18. The Committee may further wish to discuss the outcome of its informal regional consultation held in Africa in July 1994.

19. Under this item, the Committee will have before it a note by the Secretary-General on areas identified by the Committee for technical assistance and advisory services (CRC/C/30).

Item 10. Future meetings of the Committee

20. Under this item, the Committee will be informed of any developments relating to the schedule of its future meetings.

Item 11. Other matters

21. Under this item, members may wish to discuss such other matters relating to the work of the Committee as may be necessary.
